- Broad-based expertise spanning SBA financing to traditional commercial lending
- Began her banking career in 2001
- Holds a Bachelor's Degree in Finance and Economics from the University of St. Thomas
- Community-minded, holding leadership roles in several local organizations

Sarah Anderson is a Commercial Banker, working with businesses and non-profit groups to structure solutions that help them achieve their goals. She started her journey in banking over 20 years ago working as a teller, and now has a broad range of banking knowledge including SBA financing, business acquisitions, and non-profit lending in addition to traditional lending. She has found a love of finance and building trusted relationships.

Sarah's robust banking career makes her uniquely qualified to provide the best solutions for her clients while delivering a positive and engaging client experience. She knows that communication is key for any successful partnership. "Connecting and investing in my client relationships is central to how I do business. So much so, that I strive to provide value with every interaction knowing that it will lead to the most positive outcome."
